DATE RECEIVED:*	24/11/2021

TITLE:	Delegation of Monitoring Officer and Head of Paid Service (Chief Executive) roles
---------------	---

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

The Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC) for Nottinghamshire is statutorily required, under the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act (PRsRA) 2011, in accordance with Section 4 and Section 5 Local Government Act 1989, to appoint a Chief Executive and Monitoring Officer (CEMO).

The CEMO is an executive role within the OPCC as a corporation sole, and the role cannot be fulfilled by the Police and Crime Commissioner or the Chief Finance Officer. It is a politically restricted role.

The CEMO is generally responsible for:

- working closely with the PCC to enable the delivery of their vision, strategy and priorities;
- ensuring the PCC discharges their statutory duties and responsibilities;
- ensuring that robust governance arrangements are in place; and,
- facilitating the accurate and appropriate scrutiny of Nottinghamshire Police's activities.

The CEMO fulfils the statutory function of the Head of Paid Service and provides operational and strategic leadership to the Office of the PCC. They also engage with senior colleagues from central and local government, criminal justice and other partnership/voluntary sector organisations at a local, regional and national level.

The CEMO also has a statutory remit to draw to the PCC's attention to any actual or possible contravention of law, maladministration or injustice.

Due to the impending absence of the current Chief Executive, the Monitoring Officer and Head of Paid Service roles to be undertaken by Mrs Sharon Caddell in an acting capacity, which will ensure these statutory roles are covered in the absence of Mr Kevin Dennis, who will be taking leave from the organisation from 3rd December 2021, and retiring on 31st December 2021. This will remain in place until a substantive CEMO is formally appointed following a recruitment process.
