TITLE: TOM BALL HALL – COMPENSATION CLAIM

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

A claim was made against the designers of the conversion works of the former Bestwood Swimming Pool into police premises in 2004/5. An inadequate design of the suspended floor over the former pool area resulted in the floor having to be replaced and consequential costs associated with experts' reports, relocating the contents of the store, renting temporary storage and legal fees.

Compensation has been agreed to be paid by the designers as detailed in the attached confidential briefing note.
