TITLE:

Establishment of a Digital Investigation & Intelligence (Cyber) Unit integrated with FIB and re-located to FHQ

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

The business case seeks approve to relocate the Digital Investigation and Intelligence (Cyber) Unit integrated with FIB to FH.

This links into the approved business case for the Digital Investigation Unit relocation to FHQ releasing accommodation space at Holmes House and provides a centrally located office under the same management and delivers the benefits identified in both business cases.

The preferred Option 5 also requests the establishment of 3 new DMI posts to allow the unit to deliver the full benefits of the business case in a growth area. The Joint Local Policing and Specialist Services Programme Board supported the proposal and requested that further work be conducted with the Delivering the Future programme to find where the posts can come from.

INFORMATION IN SUPPORT OF DECISION: (e.g report or business case)

Revenue Costs: £142,554 (3x DMI's which will not incur the force any extra costs as taking from establishment elsewhere)

Capital Costs: £277,997 this is premises costs for making the accommodation suitable

Total Cost: £420,551

Benefits – non cashable:

The centrally located unit providing a co-ordinated and integrated management structure will deliver an increased capability to safeguard communities and to prevent / detect crime, a more structured unit better placed to link effectively with ACPO Cyber Crime Unit (ACCU) and the National Cyber Crime Unit (NCCU). In addition will provide efficiencies for the divisions and departments.

Benefits – Cashable:

The aim will be reduced overtime within the department and reduced travel costs.
