TITLE: INDEPENDENT REVIEW OF COMMUNITY SAFETY FUNDING

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

Following an open procurement process Grant Thornton has been appointed to undertake a review of community funding across Nottingham and Nottinghamshire. They have been specifically asked to: map existing investment from all sources, gather and analyse the impact of investment, assess how well the funding is being used to address the main risks, threats and vulnerability, identify partners future savings, understand how budget reduction will impact on community safety, and identify opportunities for greater collaboration. Final report will be available early November 2015.
