TITLE: Mixed Foundations and DARE Launch Events

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

To host two events:

The first to raise awareness of the work of Mixed Foundations with stakeholders and partners. Mixed Foundations is a non-profit organisation, providing person-centred counselling, trauma management, mentoring, prison in-reach, family conferencing and educational workshops.

The second was to support the launch of an evaluation of the effectiveness of the D.A.R.E. programme. Life Skills Education CIC commissioned Professor Andromachi Tseloni from Nottingham Trent University and Dr Emily Evans of the University of Nottingham to conduct the evaluation across the East Midlands. The evaluation was funded by the College of Policing. The research showed that children who received drug and life skills lessons in school were significantly more prepared to make safe and responsible choices than those who did not receive the classes.
