TITLE: Appropriate Adult Procurement

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

Appropriate Adults are required to attend custody suites in support of vulnerable adult suspects in custody and to ensure detainee's rights and entitlements are upheld as well as to facilitate communication.

The existing Nottinghamshire Appropriate Adult contract will end on 31st March 2019 and an agreement has been reached that the new contract will be procured on a regional basis to include Leicestershire, Nottinghamshire and Northamptonshire. Leicestershire PCC will lead a procurement exercise for a framework contract for the delivery of Appropriate Adult services from 1st April 2019 making use of existing budgets. This framework will be available for the use of Leicestershire, Nottinghamshire and Northamptonshire force areas.

The PCC is requested to approve:

- the commencement of the procurement exercise for an Appropriate Adults framework to be awarded on the basis of the outcome of the tender exercise as concluded by the tender evaluation panel.
