TITLE: Dissemination of CDP Funding 2021/2022EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

This decision form provides an outline of division of funding by the Crime and Drugs Partnership (CDP) during 2021/22

INFORMATION IN SUPPORT OF DECISION: (e.g report or business case)

The CDP was allocated £160,000 of funding by the OPCC in 2021/22 to fund activity in line with CDP priorities.

An agreement was made by the OPCC, CDP and VRU in 2020 that whilst funding decisions would continue to be made by the City Council, in consultation with the VRU and OPCC, that this funding would be administered by the Violence Reduction Unit (VRU) to enable monitoring of projects alongside VRU commissioned interventions.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

It is proposed that the £160,000 allocated to the CDP is disseminated to the following organisations.

Organisation	Project	Amount (£)	Summary
Community Recording Studio		25,000	Targeted outreach, diversionary music programmes, and one to one support, to help YP at risk of violence develop their skills, capacities and capabilities, enable them to participate in society.
Skill Mill	Skill Mill	20,000	Provide employment opportunities for 8 young people aged 16-18 who have had contact with the YJS to actively reducing reoffending whilst increasing engagement, participation, employability and educational levels
African Caribbean Asian Forum (Dir. Andrew Campbell)	Passages	25,000	An integrated programme enabling YP (aged 16-18) to 'desist' from anti-social behaviour, risky lifestyles, and involvement in serious criminal behaviour. Deploying pro social modelling, empowerment and social marketing methodologies and the Common

			Assessment Framework it develops innovative intervention/prevention programmes within a sound criminological framework
Stronger People	Child Criminal Exploitation Intervention Services	10,000	Undertake outreach and provide intensive intervention & support services for young people at risk of, or affected by Child Criminal Exploitation (CCE) and Serious Youth Violence in Nottingham.
Exploitation and Violence Reduction Hub		10,000	Support the Exploitation and Violence Reduction Hub (EVR Hub) which was established in October 2018 to increase multi-agency support and capacity. Specifically, funding will support the development of resources and activities to work with girls.
Al Hurraya	Cultural Competency Training	10,000	Deliver training around cultural competency for staff in the City Council and support the development of work to address disproportionality
Take One	Keeping it Real Mentor Project	20,000	Working with 20 young people aged 16-24. This project has two aims, divert and target. The diversionary activities will focus on early intervention working with those who have been identified as being vulnerable and who may be easily coerced into taking part in risky behaviour. The targeted activities will focus on those who have already been identified as taking part in such behaviours.
BBBs	Targeted Youth Outreach	40,000	Contribution of £40,000 to outreach undertaken by BBB's in Nottingham City Centre.
TOTAL		160,000
