TITLE:	Safeguarding Through Commissioning Policy
---------------	---

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

A potential funder has requested Nottinghamshire Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner's Safeguarding Policy.

Nottinghamshire Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner is responsible for quality assurance of safeguarding standards through contractual arrangements with all its commissioned services. This includes any service working with children, young people and adults at risk, including but not limited to:

- Victim support services
- Substance misuse support services
- Violence Reduction Unit initiatives
- Community based grant funded projects
- Providers in the independent sector, third sector and social enterprises

Nottinghamshire Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner already has implemented processes and practice to ensure that its commissioned services comply fully with local multi-agency safeguarding practice. This has now been drawn together in a new Safeguarding Through Commissioning Policy.

The Commissioner is requested to approve the publication of Nottinghamshire Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner's Safeguarding Through Commissioning Policy.

INFORMATION IN SUPPORT OF DECISION: (eg report or business case)

Nottinghamshire Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner works within the local safeguarding boards policy and practice:

The Safeguarding Through Commissioning Policy sets out the responsibilities of Nottinghamshire Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner as a commissioner and co-commissioner of services facilitating the wellbeing and safeguarding of children, young people and adults at risk. It has been developed to ensure clarity on the role of the Office in accordance with current legislation and guidance.

The key objectives of the policy are:

- To ensure that commissioned services follow agreed local multi-agency procedures in dealing with cases of adult or child abuse.
- To provide awareness for staff of the importance of consideration of safeguarding in all commissioning activity
- To promote good inter-agency co-operation with co-commissioners
- To promote the sharing of information in order to promote and safeguard the welfare of children or adults at risk.

The policy is owned by Kevin Dennis, Chief Executive. It will be reviewed in July 2022.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The procedures and practice outlined in the policy have been in place for some time. There are no financial implications.
