TITLE:	Match funding for Nottingham Forest Community Trust
---------------	---

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:
The Premier League and PFA Community Fund is a partnership between the Premier League and the PFA which has been operating since August 2007. The funding opportunity is available only to clubs currently competing in the Premier League and seeks to tackle inequalities and promote inclusion. Nottingham Forest Community Trust approached the VRP to submit a partnership application to support young people at risk of violence. The bid will see the implementation of a two-year structured mentoring programme for young people to reduce risk factors associated with violent crime. 6 cohorts of 10 young people grouped in ages (14-17) and 18-25) to receive mentoring and group football coaching sessions each week. A Mentoring Manager and a team of experienced community mentors will be recruited. The full bid has been conditionally accepted by the Premier League subject to VRP match funding. The total budget is £300,000 over 24 months with the VRP contribution 100,000.
