Following the success of the 2022 event, where over 200 young people took part, a further Kick Off @3 tournament has been arranged across 2 days on 10th and 11th June 2023 at Clifton. Nottinghamshire Police, in partnership with NET trams, Nottingham College, University of Nottingham, Nottinghamshire Fire and Rescue, and the Royal Air Force, have arranged a football tournament between police officers and children and young people in the city that will enable positive interactions and the building of trusting relationships in a familiar environment. Participants will also be able to engage with partners, including the VRP, hosting stalls to provide signposting and relevant information, including opportunities about further education, apprenticeships, employability and other support. The £1000 will contribute to facilitation and marketing of the event.
